Cancellation Policy for all Activities during the SASP Congress 2022

1. In the event of cancellation of the Congress by the SASP, for whatever reason:

- all monies paid by the attendees to the SASP shall be refunded to the attendee
- refunds will be paid within 30 days of the date of cancellation

2. In the event of cancellation by the Attendee:

- during the period from payment of fees up until three month (16 June 2022) prior to the congress, a handling fee of 10% would be payable
- between three to two months before the congress (16 July 2022), the attendee shall forfeit 20% of all amounts paid to the SASP irrespective of reason of withdrawal or cancellation

- between two and one month before the congress (16 August 2022), the attendee shall forfeit 50% of all amounts paid to the SASP irrespective of reason of withdrawal or cancellation
- by one month before the congress or closer to the event taking place, the attendee shall forfeit all amounts paid to the SASP irrespective of reason of withdrawal or cancellation.

3. Member Conduct

- Participants are expected to adhere to the rules of the event as set out during the “Welcome Session”.
- Participants shall not participate in any activities during lectures that might reduce the ability of others to engage with the learning process.
- Participants shall not make themselves guilty of disruptive behaviour of any kind, during the event. The organisers have the right to ask the participant to leave or have the participant removed.

4. Disclaimer

- The SASP would not be liable for any damage or injury to any person or goods during the SASP Congress 2022.
- The SASP would not be liable to the Sponsor’s or attendees’ losses should the event be cancelled due to acts beyond its control including war, riots, coup de’ tat, armed resistance, overthrowing of the government and weather-related disaster.

5. Other

- The congress, as all SASP events, must be purchased and paid for on the SASP E-commerce system.
- The deadlines for registrations and payment for the congress has been communicated to members and are available on the website.
- No provisions are made for special dietary requirements during the congress, although the committee will consider a variety of options when finalising the catering. Participants must supply their own. No discount on fees will be granted.
